

Death of Mrs. C. Innes: Intelligence was received here this week of the death of Mrs. Inness, widow of the late C. Innes, formerly of Deseronto. The sad event occurred at the residence of her daughter in Kincardine where she had been stopping for some months. Mrs. Innes had of late years resided with her daughter Mrs. Fralick of Poughkeepsie, N.Y. At the time of the sickness and death of Mrs. Weedmark in May she went to Fesserton where she remained for a month or two. She went to Stratford to meet her father who had returned from the Pacific coast and was visiting her brother in that city. From Stratford she proceeded to Kincardine to visit her daughter, Mrs. Farquharson. While she was there she contracted fever and subsequently pneumonia developed with fatal results. The deceased, whose maiden name was Gamble, was of a highly respected family in the west and was justly held in high esteem. Her husband died in Deseronto about ten years ago. In addition to the children already mentioned, she is survived by a son – William – who is a miller in some part of New York State. The remains were interred at Tesswater, in the family plot in the cemetery at that place. Many friends in Deseronto will hear of her death with no small measure of regret.
