Lois Bennett

(Died January 4, 2015)

Bennett, Lois

Born on an October morning in 1925 Lois Weedmark was true to her formidable family line. Strong, capable and an independent woman for a new century. Without complaint she forged through life holding a job, raising kids, travelling and gardening (until she saw the snake)! Life was lived and her friends were many and a wonderful example of a thriving community of loving and caring people. She no doubt will be missed at the bridge table, but now someone else can win! After two trips across the country to see 3 children, 3 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren she had 2 days of transition and then was gathered in her sleep. As a mother she was magnificent and tender, always healing the wounds of life. Her words were wisdom of simple kindness and strong morality of spirit. Her presence will be missed but she will always be with us. She insisted there be flowers when she was alive and none at her funeral. She was and is loved.

Friends are invited to her funeral service at the Alan R. Barker Funeral Home, 19 McArthur Avenue, Carleton Place on Thursday, January 8, 2015 at 1 p.m. with Rev. Fr. David Andrew officiating.

There will be no visitation. Donations to the CNIB will be gratefully acknowledged
