

LOUINA DRUSCILLA WILLIAMSON NEE WEEDMARK Peacefully on Sunday, October 17, 1982 at the Beacon Hill Lodge, Louina Druscilla Williamson, aged 97 years, after a long illness. She was born on March 9, 1885 in County Lambton, Ontario. In 1901 she married Levi Williamson. She came west to Watrous, Sask. in 1912 with her four children following her husband's death. In 1914, she moved to Souris, Man. where she spent 13 years. She had resided in Winnipeg since 1927. Throughout her life she devoted herself to her family and friends and will be fondly remembered by so many to whom she gave herself so generously. She developed her talent for designing and creating clothes and founded and ran her own business until age 80. In both Souris and Winnipeg she was an active member of the Orange Lodge. In her early years in Winnipeg she was a member of Know Church and later of Greenwood/ McClure United Church where she was actively involved with the Women's Association. In 1967 she received the Crocus Award in honor of her contribution as a pioneer in the west. She is survived by her devoted daughter Amanda Ostrander of Winnipeg; her son Harold Williamson of Cabri, Sask.; her daughter-in-law Mary Williamson of Hilton, MB; eight grandchildren, Sheila Ostrander of Vancouver; Joan and husband Ray Knisley, Sharon and husband Warren Walterson of Winnipeg; Mervyn and wife Beverly Williamson of Brandon, Gordon and wife Vivian Williamson and Bob and wife Jean Williamson of Belmont and Brian Fogarty of Vancouver; 13 great-grandchildren, two sisters; Mrs. S.M. Hill of Arkona, Ontario, and Mrs. Evelyn Watson of Fort Frances, Ont. and a niece Mrs. Pauline Wilson of Willowdale, Ont. She was predeceased by her husband Levi Williamson; her son Burt Williamson; her daughter Edith Fogarty; her sons-in-law, Cecil Fogarty and George Ostrander. She will be lovingly remembered by many other friends and relatives. Funeral service Friday, October 22 at 2:00 p.m. in McClure United Church, Greenwood near Portage. Rev. W. Morgan officiating. Interment in Elmwood Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Ray Knisley, Warren Walterson, Mervyn, Gordon and Bob Williamson and Scott Jackson.
